

On Air Highlights Home | English for Asia | English for the Pacific | Contribute

On Air Highlights

A glimpse of the Australian Dream with the Immaculate Perception Project

13 October 2011

Listen and download: MP3

Tradition, memory, cultural identity make their way onto wood-free wallpaper in a innovative collaboration between three Melbourne-based artists and a local manufacturer.

The Immaculate Perception Project was launched this week by Craft Victoria.

Artists Maryann Talia Pau, Penelope Gale and Caitlin Ziegler tapped into their cultural heritage and notions of "home" to create their designs .

They share their thoughts on the joy and challenges of the designing process for this unique collection.

Presenter: Isabelle Genoux

Speakers : Maryann Talia Pau, Penelope Gale, Caitlin Ziegler

Related posts:

- Savage Designs in the Haus

Search All Stories

 Search

Enjoy the latest news, talk and stories from our live radio channels.

 Subscribe to podcast

 Contribute

 SMS +61 427 72 72 72

 +61 3 9626 1050

 Connect on Facebook

Choose your channel

English for Asia

English for the Pacific

Blogs-->

- Learn English
- Languages
- About Us

Languages

- Chinese
- Indonesian
- French
- Khmer
- Tok Pisin
- Vietnamese

Listen Live

- English for Asia
- Burmese
- Chinese
- Indonesian
- Khmer